5. Members' Reserve Power

- (a) The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action provided that such direction is in good faith and the best interests of the Society.
- (b) No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

6. Number of Directors and Eligibility for Appointment

- (a) The number of directors shall be not less than five nor more than twelve. If at any time, there are fewer than five directors the Board may act for the purposes of filling any vacancies or of summoning a general meeting but not for any other purpose.
- (b) No person other than a Member or a Student Member (as defined in Article 27) shall be eligible to hold office as a director.
- (c) A member who has been a director or a person with significant control of a company or other entity registered at Companies House which has been the subject of a compulsory strike-off shall not be eligible for election as a director of the Society unless and until a period of four years has elapsed following the strike-off.

8 Casual Vacancies

- (b) An appointment under this article shall expire at the next election of directors, but a person appointed under this article shall be eligible for re-election.

9 Directors may Delegate

- (a) The directors shall always remain accountable for exercising the powers conferred by the Articles, but may delegate any of them in writing:

 - (iii) to such an extent;
 - (iv) in relation to such matters; and
 - (v) on such terms and conditions, as they think fit.
- (b) If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person(s) or working group to whom they are delegated.
- (c) The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part or alter its terms and conditions.

- (b) Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated his agreement in writing.
- (c) References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting. Any Board member who has a conflict of interests in relation to the matter to be decided must declare his interest and not participate in the decision-making process. In any disciplinary matter the requirement for the President to remain independent is deemed to represent such a conflict.
- (d) A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors had not formed a quorum at such a meeting.

13 Urgent Decisions

- (a) If a director raises a matter on which an urgent decision is required the President, or the Chief Officer may decide if satisfied that a decision is required before a Board meeting can be convened.

 - (ii) the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or
 - (iii) the director's conflict of interest arises from a guarantee given, or to be given by or to another director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the Society or any of its subsidiaries.
- (c) For the purposes of this Article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any Board meeting or part of a Board meeting or a decision taken pursuant to Article 12.

- (e) If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chair of the meeting, the question is to be decided by a majority of the directors participating in that meeting, for which purpose the chair of the meeting is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.
- (f) For the purposes of paragraph (a) a director is deemed to have an interest if he has a beneficial interest directly or as part of any indirect relationship through an intermediate organisation or service company, in person or through a close family member.
